Pradeep Gidwani, MD, MPH is the Director of Projects at the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP), California Chapter 3, San Diego and Imperial Counties. He works on the team providing county-wide coordination and support for First 5 San Diego’s Healthy Development Services project and First 5 San Diego First Step Home Visiting Program. Dr. Gidwani works closely with other Early Childhood Mental Health leaders to advance the ECMH principles in all services. He is a past president of AAP-CA3 and serves on many local boards. His background includes disease management, program development, policy work, and mind-body medicine. He is also a certified Kundalini yoga instructor.

Mark Katz, PhD is a clinical and consulting psychologist in San Diego, California. For over 30 years, he has served as the Director of Learning Development Services, an educational, psychological and neuro-psychological center in San Diego, California and home to the Resilience Through the Lifespan Project, a project dedicated to understanding the different ways in which people have been able to carve out meaningful and productive lives for themselves, despite having endured a range of adverse childhood experiences. Dr. Katz is the author of On Playing a Poor Hand Well, a book which explores the lessons learned from those who’ve overcome adverse childhood experiences and discusses ways of incorporating these lessons into our existing system of care.

Bruce D. Perry, MD, PhD is an internationally recognized authority on children in crisis. Dr. Perry is the Senior Fellow of the ChildTrauma Academy (www.ChildTrauma.org), a Houston-based organization dedicated to research and education on child maltreatment and Adjunct Professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at the Feinberg School of Medicine at Northwestern University in Chicago. He serves as the Inaugural Senior Fellow of the Berry Street Childhood Institute, an Australian-based Center of Excellence focusing on the translation of theory into practice to improve the lives of children. Dr. Perry is the author of over 500 journal articles, book chapters and scientific proceedings. Dr. Perry is the author, with Maia Szalavitz, of The Boy Who Was Raised as a Dog, a best-selling book based on his work with maltreated children, and Born for Love, Why Empathy is Essential and Endangered.