

13th Annual Early Childhood Mental Health Conference - We Can't Wait
How are the Children? The Path from Healing to Well-Being

2022 Support Partner and Exhibitor Opportunities

On behalf of the Early Childhood Mental Health Conference (ECMH) committee, we would like to invite you to join us in supporting the Thirteenth Annual Early Childhood Mental Health Conference which will be held on September 15-16, 2022. This year's conference will be a two-day hybrid event, with both live and virtual options for attending.

The target audience includes those involved in providing assessment, treatment, education, support, and advocacy for young children (0-5) and families. Attendees will include psychiatrists, pediatricians, marriage family therapists, social workers, psychologists, mental health workers, substance abuse and addiction professionals, counselors and case managers, nurses, occupational therapists, physical therapists, speech therapists, teachers, educators, child welfare workers, early childhood education providers, childcare specialists, mental health administrators and other healthcare and educational providers.

As a support partner, you will have the opportunity to choose from several different exhibitor levels (detailed below) and be able to select the option that best fits the needs of your agency or company, while advocating for the mental health needs of children and families in San Diego County. Our attendees value this dedicated time to meet with you and learn about your company's resources.

If you are interested in partnering with us and/or exhibiting, please email mhelinski@ucsd.edu for additional information.

This rare opportunity of bringing clinicians and providers from all fields of practice to participate in an educational activity and networking event would not be possible without the generous support of the County of San Diego as our major funding partner, and YOU, our community partners. We look forward to sharing this special event with your organization and hope you will join us.

We hope you will join us at this important conference. Please feel free to contact me at 858-534-1302 or by email at mhelinski@ucsd.edu if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Maureen Helinski Clarke, CMP
